RHEUMATISM RECOVERY READS LIKE A FAIRY TALE

Gloucester Man Now Well After 45 Years of Suffering

W. A. Varney of the Var-Ne-Sis Company, Lynn, Mass., recently received an interesting letter from Mr. Elden Tibbetis of 11 Proctor The 50th anniversary of the dedication letter from Mr. Elden Tibbetts of 11 Proctor street. Gloucester, Mass. Mr. Varney believes that this particular recovery from chronic rheumatism to be remarkable. In the hope of helping other sufferers of the same disease, the letter is published.

"I had been suffering with rheumatism of the joints for 45 years," Mr. Tibbetts says. "The disease finally apread so that every part of my body was afflicted to a great extent. My right arm and hand was so stiff and swollen that I was unable to raise it above my waist. The thumb of my left hand had been as 'atiff as a board' for two years. The disease even extended to my neck and shoulders, making it impossible to turn my head. I was fairly comfortable as long as I was quiet, but when I started to move about, the pain was unbearable.

"Several physicians failed to give me any relief, and I finally decided to try Var-Ne-Sis, as it seemed to be the only remarkable what this Var-Ne-Sis, sidd for me. I feel 25 years
